WOMAN'S TRIUMPH.

The case of Mrs Edward Myers of Rondout New York, furnishes an apt illustration of woman's power of endurance This lady had been treated for months in the usual way for Erysipelas of the hand, without benefit Not until her hand had become a mass of putrified flesh, did she turn to Dr Kennedy, proprietor of the 'Favorite Remedy" for help

He at once informed her that it was impossible to save the hand—it must be amputated She received this terrible intelligence quietly, declined to take ether, stipulating merely to hold her husband's hand during the operation, and underwent the painful process without moving a muscle or uttering a groan Dr Kennedy then gave 'Favorite Remedy' freely to cleanse the blood and prevent the return of the disease, and Mrs Myers now lives and rejoices in her great deliverance

"Favorite Remedy" is fast becoming a trusted household friend in all cases of female Weakness and diseases of the blood One dollar a bottle Your druggist has it

Fellows' Hypophosphites.
NEURALGIA.

It has been ascertained that the most inveterate cases of neuralgia are cured by Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites. Not only is the principal disease eradicated, but the patient is made vigorous and strong the stomach, the blood, the skin become healthy, and he obtains a new lease of enjoyable life

The virtues of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites are such that other remedies are seldom required.

The demand for Hypophosphite and other Phosphorus preparations at the present day, is largely owing to the good effects and success following the introduction of this article in the United States

IMPORTANT.

Should the invalid have any difficulty in procuring the Compound Syrup in his vicinity, let him not be put off with any other remedy, because this article has not its equal in the diseases for which it is recommended

NOTE—Be suspicious of persons who recommend any other article as "just as good." The hottest class medical men in every large city, where it is known, recommend it

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

A brutal crime was committed in Lewiston, Thursday morning. About half past six o'clock, Mary Guy, the wife of Irene Guy, was sleeping in bed, in her room A rough, unknown to her, coolly entered the house and went to her room without waking her. The rough committed a vile assault on her, and was only prevented from accomplishing his horrible purpose, by her screams, upon awaking, which aroused the people in the house and caused the fellow to take flight. The woman received such a shock that her condition is now very critical, say her attending physicians. She thinks she can identify her assailant, and her description of him photographs a desperate Lewiston jail-bird.

Prudent Caron, the young mail-robber, was fined by Judge Dresser, of Auburn, a few weeks ago, for stealing a watch. Caron passed Wednesday night in the lock-up. He cried considerably when it began to get dark, but came out gay as a lark, Thursday morning. He will be held until Inspector Bigelow calls for him.

The total expenditures of the city of Auburn, for the current municipal year, will be very nearly $100,000. The city treasurer's pay-roll for the current month, foots up $10,276. Of this amount, $6,500 is paid on the city debt and interest due.

About the severest and most peculiar accident that has recently happened in Lewiston, befell Mrs. Robert White, a lady 54 years of age, on Wednesday. During the day, Mrs. White slipped and fell while working about the house. In the fall one of her elbows struck a large iron pot with force enough to knock out a piece of the rim of the kettle. A bad abrasion was produced, but the injury was not regarded serious. Her husband called at a Lewiston physician's office and said his wife had cut her elbow, and he wished the doctor to strap it up. An examination of the wound showed that a piece of one of the bones of the arm had been split off at the elbow joint, making a horrible fracture. The piece of bone was removed and is as large as a walnut. The joint is spoiled, and Mrs. White will always have a stiff arm, if she does not have to lose it. The wound is very painful.

Street Commissioner French of Auburn, has expended the past year, on streets, bridges and sidewalks, about $10,000. Main street paving has also been extended, at an expense of $5,000. During the year, the sewer system has been extended and improved, considerably. $1,720 has been expended for new sewers, chiefly pipe sewers. The Street Commissioner has also laid out about $450 in building a break-water on the West Auburn road, where Lake Auburn comes up to the highway, near the Hathaway place. The embankment had been worn away so the wash came up to the road line. A substantial wall of granite, from Verrill's ledge, has been nearly completed. The wall will be about fifty rods long. All but twenty yards of it was done when the wet weather came on and prevented work on the shore. If we have another good freeze, it will be finished this spring, perhaps. The wall will greatly improve the road, and add to the pleasure of next summer's drives to lake Auburn.

Cumberland.

Thursday morning two Indians belonging to the tribe of nomadic Aborigines who are camped on the right side of the road in Knightville, just beyond the bridge, had an altercation while intoxicated. Words brought on blows and finally one of the men drew a knife and inflicted three severe wounds on the other. A physician was called and dressed the injured man's wounds, which he pronounced dangerous. The assailant was arrested and lodged in Knightville jail to await the result of the wounded man's injuries.

The past season has been a successful one for logging on Union river, and a number of men belonging in the vicinity have returned home. It is expected that there will be a good driving pitch on Union river this spring.

The Boston Herald says that it will be remembered that when J. P. Littlefield, grocer of Gardiner, compromised a few weeks since, with his Boston creditors, he stated to them that, before he bought out his partner, Mr. Runnells, the latter had so manipulated the books that the condition of things was falsified; that Mr. Runnells had stolen unknown sums from the firm, and that after selling out he had absconded. Mr. Littlefield thus attributed his own failure to the rascality of Mr. Runnells. These charges from Mr. Littlefield have elicited a full denial from Mr. Runnells, and he also charges that Mr. Littlefield failed to make money.

Mr. Rutillus Alden is one of the enterprising farmers of Winthrop, says the Home Farm. He knows how to farm and make it pay; keeps ten cows, four heavy oxen, and other stock to the number of thirty head; keeps swine and raises pork; feeds his store hogs considerably on Mangold beets through the winter, and says that he can make it pay to raise pork at six cen s per pound. He is getting together lumber and materials this winter to build him a large barn next season. It is to be 105 feet in length, 52 feet wide, 18 feet posts, with a cellar under the whole structure.

Oxford.

The annual report of the town officers of Fryeburg, shows that the amount of taxable property in the town is $671,159, of which $352,870 is real estate and $138,389 personal property. The number of polls is 435. The per cent. of taxation is 0138 on $1. The total amount appropriated and assessed in 1880, was $10,495 35. The amount spent for schools was $2,019.28. Moses Butler, of Sanford, states that his father raised a family of seventeen children, of whom thirteen are now living, and their united ages amount to nine hundred and two and a half years. The oldest was eighty years of age last January, and the youngest fifty-six last January. Mr. Butler says that he won't attempt to record the grand and great grand children, for it would be too much work.

A new freight office is being constructed within the freight house at the Boston & Maine depot in Biddeford, which is noticeable for its pretty design and its neat and attractive appearance. The main office is much larger than the old one, is finished in black walnut and the floor laid with southern pine. Connecting with this office is a smaller room with ample shelf room for books and papers, water tank and sink.

The Great Works woolen mills, at South Berwick, are in full operation, and the sales of their goods, which usually closes in September, continued this year to December, showing a much busier outlook than usual.

The horse thief, Franklin, alias Clark, had his trial in Mechanics Hall before Justice Haven A. Butler, last Saturday. The evidence was overwhelming against him. Notwithstanding the surprising amount of bravado which he manifested he was bound over in the sum of $500, and in the afternoon constable Eli Clark took him to Alfred Jail where he now languishes in durance vile. Knight Brothers traced their team to Moses Colman's auction room in Boston where it was sold but all they have been able to recover is the whip.

Mrs. Joseph Dearborn of East Parsonsfield, was found by a neighbor in an insensible state last Saturday afternoon, having fallen down the chamber stairs. She was badly bruised, but no bones were broken, which was somewhat remarkable as the lady weighs some 200 pounds and is 65 years old

WOMAN'S TRIUMPH.

The case of Mrs. Edward Myers of Rondout, New York, furnishes an apt illustration of woman's power of endurance. This lady had been troubled for months in the usual way for Hysterics, of the hand, without benefit. Not until her hand had become a mass of putrified flesh, did she turn to Dr. Kennedy, proprietor of the Favorite Remedy for help.

His at once informed her that it was impossible to save the hand—it must be amputated. She received this terrible intelligence quietly, declined to take ether, submitting merely to hold her hand's hand during the operation, and underwent the painful process without moving a muscle or uttering a groan. Dr. Kennedy then gave Favorite Remedy freely to cleanse the blood and prevent the return of the disease and Mrs. Myers now lives and rejoices in her great deliverance.

"Favorite Remedy" is fast becoming a trusted household friend in all cases of Female Weakness and diseases of the blood. One dollar a bottle. Your druggist has it.

NEURALGIA.

It has been ascertained that the most inveterate cases of neuralgia are cured by Fellows' Syrup of Hypophosphites. Not only is the principal disease eradicated, but the patient is made vigorous and strong, the stomach, the blood, the skin become healthy, and he obtains a new lease of enjoyable life.

The virtues of Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites are such that other remedies are seldom required.

The demand for Hypophosphites and other Phosphorus preparations at the present day, is largely owing to the good effects and success following the introduction of this article in the United States.

IMPORTANT.

Should the invalid have any difficulty in procuring the Compound Syrup in his vicinity, let him not be put off with any other, but procure this article has not its equal in the diseases for which it is recommended.

NOTE—Have suspicions of persons who recommend any other article as "just as good." The highest class medical men in every large city, where it is known, recommend it.

Androscoggin.

A brutal crime was committed in Lewiston, Thursday morning. About half past six o'clock, Mary Guy, the wife of Irene Guy, was sleeping in bed, in her room. A rough, unknown to her, coolly entered the house and went to her room without waking her. The rough committed a vile assault on her, and was only prevented from accomplishing his horrible purpose, by her screams, upon awaking, which aroused the people in the house and caused the fellow to take flight. The woman received such a shock that her condition is now very critical, say her attending physicians. She thinks she can identify her assailant, and her description of him photographs a desperate Lewiston jail-bird.

Prudent Caron, the young mail-robber, was fined by Judge Dresser, of Auburn, a few weeks ago, for stealing a watch. Caron passed Wednesday night in the lock-up. He cried considerably when it began to grow dark, but came out gay as a lark, Thursday morning. He will be held until Inspector Bigelow calls for him.

The total expenditures of the city of Auburn, for the current municipal year, will be very nearly $100,000. The city treasurer's pay-roll for the current month, foots up $10,276. Of this amount, $6,500 is paid on the city debt and interest due.

About the severest and most peculiar accident that has recently happened in Lewiston, befell Mrs. Robert White, a lady 54 years of age, on Wednesday. During the day, Mrs. White slipped and fell while working about the house. In the fall one of her elbows struck a large iron pot with force enough to knock out a piece of the rim of the kettle. A bad abrasion was produced, but the injury was not regarded serious. Her husband called at a Lewiston physician's office and said his wife had cut her elbow, and he wished the doctor to dress up. An examination of the wound showed that a piece of one of the bones of the arm had been split off at the elbow joint, making a horrible fracture. The piece of bone was removed and is as large as a walnut. The joint is spoiled, and Mrs. White will always have a stiff arm, if she does not have to lose it. The wound is very painful.

Street Commissioner French of Auburn, has expended the past year, on streets, bridges and sidewalks, about $10,000. Main street paving has also been extended, at an expense of $5,000. During the year, the sewer system has been extended and improved, considerably. $1,720 has been expended for new sewers,—chiefly pipe sewers. The Street Commissioner has also laid out about $450 in building a brick water on the West Auburn road, where Lake Auburn comes up to the highway, near the Hathaway place. The embankment had been worn away so the wash came up to the road line. A substantial wall of granite, from Verrill's ledge, has been nearly completed. The wall will be about fifty rods long. All but twenty yards of it was done when the very severe cause on and prevented work on the shore. If we have another good freeze, it will be finished this spring, perhaps. The wall will greatly improve the road, and add to the pleasure of next summer's drives to lake Auburn.

Cumberland.

Thursday morning two Indians belonging to the tribe of nomadic Aborigines who are camped on the right side of the road in Knightville, just beyond the bridge, had an altercation while intoxicated. Words brought on blows and finally one of the men drew a knife and inflicted three severe wounds on the other. A physician was called and dressed the injured man's wounds, which he pronounced dangerous. The assailant was arrested and lodged in Knightville jail to await the result of the wounded man's injuries.

The past season has been a successful one for logging on Union river, and a number of men belonging in the vicinity have returned home. It is expected that there will be a good driving pitch on Union river this spring.

The Boston Herald says that it will be remembered that when J. P. Littlefield, grocer, Gardiner, compromised, a few weeks since, with his Boston creditors, he stated to them that, before he bought out his partner, Mr. Runnells, the latter had so manipulated the books that the condition of things was falsified; that Mr. Runnells had stolen unknown sums from the firm, and that after selling out he had absconded. Mr. Littlefield thus attributed his own failure to the rascality of Mr. Runnells. These charges from Mr. Littlefield have elicited a full denial from Mr. Runnells, and he also charges that Mr. Littlefield failed to make money.

Mr. Rutilius Alden is one of the enterprising farmers of Winthrop, says the Home Farm. He knows how to farm and make it pay; keeps ten cows, four heavy oxen, and other stock to the number of thirty head; keeps swine and raises pork; feeds his store hogs considerably on Mangold beets through the winter, and says that he can make it pay to raise pork at six cents per pound. He is getting together lumber and materials this winter to build him a large barn next season. It is to be 105 feet in length, 52 feet wide, 18 feet posts, with a cellar under the whole structure.

Oxford.

The annual report of the town officers of Fryeburg, shows that the amount of taxable property in the town is $671,159, of which $532,570 is real estate and $138,589 personal property. The number of polls is 436. The per cent. of taxation is .0135 on $1. The total amount appropriated and assessed in 1880, was $10,495 35. The amount spent for schools was $2,019.38. The whole number of scholars is 487. The total receipts were $27,363.46 and the expenditures $25,808.34.

Moses Butler, of Sanford, states that his father raised a family of seventeen children, of whom thirteen are now living, and their united ages amount to nine hundred and two and a half years. The oldest was eighty years of age last January, and the youngest fifty-six last January. Mr. Butler says that he won't attempt to record the grand and great grand children, for it would be too much work.

A new freight office is being constructed within the freight house at the Boston & Maine depot in Biddeford, which is noticeable for its pretty design and its neat and attractive appearance. The main office is much larger than the old one, is finished in black walnut and the floor laid with southern pine. Connecting with this office is a smaller room with ample shelf room for books and papers, water tank and sink.

The horse thief, Franklin, alias Clark, had his trial in Mechanics Hall before Justice Haven A. Butler, last Saturday. The evidence was overwhelming against him. Notwithstanding the surprising amount of bravado which he manifested he was bound over in the sum of $500, and in the afternoon constable Eli Clark took him to Alfred Jail where he now languishes in durance vile. Knight Brothers traced their team to Moses Colman's auction room in Boston where it was sold but all they have been able to recover is the whip.

Mrs. Joseph Dearborn of East Parsonsfield, was found by a neighbor in an insensible state last Saturday afternoon, having fallen down the chamber stairs. She was badly bruised, but no bones were broken, which was somewhat remarkable as the lady weighs some 260 pounds and is 65 years old.

BOUTELLE & BURR, PROPRIETORS.

C. A. BOUTELLE, EDITOR.

All business letters should be addressed to Boutelle & Burr, and communications intended for publication should be addressed: "Editor of Whig and Courier."

MONDAY, MARCH 14, 1881.

For Mayor,
LYSANDER STRICKLAND

TO OUR CITIZENS.

We appeal to every thoughtful, law-abiding, order-loving citizen of Bangor to interest himself to-day in electing to the control of our municipal affairs a City Government not only composed of trust-worthy citizens, but also men holding to those principles which tend to wise, intelligent administration and the advancement of all the higher interests of the community. Several of our sister cities have set us an inspiring example of Republican victories this Spring, and we only need to bring out the Republican vote here to-day to respond with a ringing Bangor victory.

We ask our Republican friends to vote early, to give their services to the cause at the polls, and to aid in getting out our full strength.

No Weapon but Falsehood.

Unable to bring any legitimate objection or criticism against Hon. Lysander Strickland, the Republican candidate for Mayor, the Fusion organ recklessly resorts to the most impudent and glaring falsehood with the purpose of impugning his "judgment." As this most contemptible falsehood is repeated in two editorials of the Commercial we quote its statements as follows:

THE WHIG vouches for Mr. Strickland as a calm, clear-headed, judicious man, who can be trusted to conduct on municipal affairs wisely and well."

If the County Commissioners had accepted the "judgment" of Mr. Strickland in the suit of the Corporation mills against the city, they would have mulcted our tax payers in the sum of $100,000, instead of the $26,000 which they settled upon as a fair price to be paid the owners of the damaged property.

* * * *

Can the interests of the city and of the tax-payers, upon whom the burden of taxation is now well nigh unendurable, be safely intrusted to the care of a man whose judgment in one single case, if accepted, would have cost the city the sum of $74,000 more than its rejection did?

There is an explicit statement that Mr. Strickland estimated the damage that the city should pay at $100,000, when the case was settled for $26,000. That is a bold, unmitigated falsehood, and it ought to everlastingly brand the men who publish such deliberate calumny.

The Commercial knows that Mr. Strickland, when called as a witness to give his opinion of the value of that mill property, simply stated that he regarded it as worth $100,000 when purchased in 1871, and that he thought the depreciation up to the time of his testimony had been about 40 per cent. In this estimate he coincided with such prominent lumber manufacturers as Messrs. Darius Eddy, J. W. Palmer, W. H. Strickland and others of this city, John W. Atwell, and A. G. Ring, of Orono, and others.

The Commercial shamefully represents Mr. Strickland's estimate of the total, original value of the property as his estimate of the damage that should be paid; and with unequalled hardihood it declares that the acceptance of his judgment would have cost the city $74,000 more than we paid for damages, when Mr. Strickland's estimate of the total value of the property at the time of his testimony was only $60,000.

The malignity of the Commercial's falsifying is aggravated by the fact, as we are informed, that in assessing the damages Joseph Eaton, the Fusion Commissioner, proposed the sum of $35,000, while John Kimball, of Hermon, Republican Commissioner, advocated only $15,000, and the third Commissioner marked $25,000 and they finally fixed on that sum with interest.

So much for the mendacious but flimsy attack upon Mr. Strickland's "judgment." We should like to know how many of the business men of Bangor would prefer to take the "judgment" of Frederick M. Laughton rather than that of Lysander Strickland in a matter of business or value of property?

The Fusion Candidate.

Mr. Laughton has been run twice for Mayor of this city. He was elected once, and the people expressed their opinion of his fitness after trial by swamping under nearly four hundred Republican majority when he sought to be re-elected.

Mr. Laughton is a "pleasant young man" who is put forward, as everybody understands, simply as a figure-head for the Fusion machine. The Democratic tuglers claim that he belongs to so many secret societies that he will get lots of votes, and that he is such a "very pleasant young man" that lots of Republicans will turn against their own party for the great privilege of voting for him. We imagine they will learn that members of the various societies are quite as jealous of their political privileges and principles as any others, and that there are very few Republicans who will support the head of a Fusion ticket as a personal compliment.

As there has been so much boasting of Mr. Laughton's phenomenal strength as a candidate, it may be well to cite the record facts that he received 1,649 votes and was elected in 1875, when there was a serious Republican dissension, but the Republican candidate of the previous year was elected by 1,827 votes, and at Mr. Laughton's second run in 1876, he was badly beaten by Mr. Hayford who received 1,921 votes.

These figures show that Mr. Laughton's largest vote was much less than the Republican vote at the preceding and following elections; and that while in 1875 he slipped in by just 91 majority, he was voted out in 1876 by 330 majority.

Our Nominations.

The Republicans of the various wards completed the tickets Saturday evening by excellent nominations, and the list of Republican candidates published elsewhere is entitled to the heartiest support.

The feeling was one of the most harmonious character at all the meetings except in Ward Six, where some unfortunate dissensions were manifested. We sincerely hope that our friends in that ward will feel too much pride in its past record to permit it to be impaired by divisions among themselves, and earnestly [illegible] them to harmonize differences and [illegible] elect a full Republican board.

In Wards Two and [illegible] people are wide awake with [illegible] prospects of victory, and with united and zealous efforts we may carry six of the seven wards.

The Sham Threadbare.

The sham of a "Tax-payers'" caucus on Saturday was thinner and more transparent than ever. The actors in that sort of political farce recognize that it has become absurd, and they hardly make a pretence of disguising its Democratic management.

The affair Saturday was not only a regular Fusion pow-wow, but it was run and controlled by the cheapest class of Fusion strikers. The attempt to give it a semblance of non-partisanship by the unauthorized use of a few Republican names, was too gauzy to be even plausible, and the card of Mr. Stoddard, which we publish, was hardly needed to assure us that so worthy a citizen and Republican had never consented to play second-fiddle to the captain of the Hancock Legion on a Fusion Ward ticket.

It is the Democratic party that wants to get control of our City Government, and a party that is ashamed to made a contest under its own colors is not fit to be trusted by anybody.

What Do Democratic Soldiers Think of It?

At the caucus Saturday afternoon that suffering Tax-Payer and sympathetic guardian of the widows and orphans, Register of Probate John F. Robinson, denounced the voting of State aid in behalf of the orphan children of our soldiers and sailors in the Bath Military and Naval Asylum as shameful Republican extravagance, and in his virtuous indignation shouted: "God God! the war has been ended more than fifteen years!"

What do Democratic soldiers think of a party whose chief manipulators thus publicly denounce the fatherless and motherless children of the Nation's defenders, for presuming to exist as objects of compassion in the regard of a civilized Commonwealth? And what think the Democratic friends of the Bangor Children's Home, who have asked the Legislature annually for an appropriation on the ground that it aids in caring for the orphans of soldiers?

Who votes for the party that applauds a spokesman who grudges the State's pittance to help feed and clothe the orphans of our dead heroes?

EX-SENATOR HAMLIN AT HOME.

Hon. Hannibal Hamlin and his wife arrived at their home in this city by the Saturday evening train from Augusta, where in the forenoon both branches of the State Legislature took a recess to enable the members to pay their respects to the venerable and distinguished statesman who first served in the Maine House of Representatives forty-five years ago; who was its Speaker in 1837 and 1839; who served the State in the popular branch of Congress from 1843 to 1847; who was first chosen to the Senate in 1848; who was elected the first Republican Governor of Maine in 1856 by nineteen thousand majority over all competitors; who has occupied a seat in the National Senate Chamber almost continuously since 1848, and during four years of that time was associated with Abraham Lincoln as Vice-President of the United States.

Mr. Hamlin's fellow-citizens of Bangor cordially welcome home the sturdy patriot and statesman who—returns laden with honors of eminent public service, and it is their desire to mark this event with some fitting expression of the unabated confidence and esteem. With this view several informal meetings of a large number of our prominent citizens were held last week and a committee consisting of Hon. S. F. Humphrey, Hon. E. B. Nealley and C. A. Boutelle, were instructed to tender Mr. Hamlin, on behalf of his fellow-citizens of Bangor a public reception in token of their regard, and to request him to name a date that would suit his convenience. A pleasant and cordial letter in response left the time to be fixed by the committee and it has been decided to have a public reception

AT MUSIC HALL, THURSDAY EVENING NEXT, MARCH 17TH.

A cordial invitation is extended to all his fellow-citizens without regard to political affiliations—and especially including the ladies—who desire to unite in extending a hearty "welcome home" to Hannibal Hamlin after a public career of almost unparalleled extent and distinction.

Further reference to the occasion will be made hereafter, and it is to be hoped that the men and women of Bangor, without further invitation, will freely co-operate, to render the reception such a spontaneous expression of neighborly esteem as will be most gratifying to the veteran statesman.

MR. STODDARD'S NAME USED WITHOUT AUTHORITY.

Mr. Editor:—I notice in this (Saturday) evening's Commercial that my name appears in the list of nominations for Municipal Officers made at the "Tax-payers' Caucus" this afternoon. Permit me to state that I am not a willing candidate for any office. A short time previous to the regular Republican caucus, I was on several occasions asked if I would accept the nomination for Alderman from Ward Three, and had the same course been pursued on this occasion, I had been spared the unpleasant duty of publicly declining a nomination made without my knowledge or consent.

I desire to state that my vote and support will be cordially given to the Republican candidates. S. A. STODDARD.

CONGRESSMAN REED INTERVIEWED.

Hon. Thomas B. Reed, Representative from the First Congressional District of Maine, passed through Boston, Saturday morning, on his way to his home in Portland, from Washington, looking as hearty as usual, if not more so. A Traveller representative met him, interviewed him briefly, but to the point, as to the prospects of an extra session, thus:

Q—Mr. Reed, are we going to have an extra session of Congress?

Mr. Reed—I think that depends very largely upon the popular feeling throughout the country. If there appears to be a demand for it, I think the President will call one. Of course it is not very desirable for the new administration, which naturally would prefer a little breathing-time. I imagine that the business people would also prefer that there should be none. If, however, one is finally thought necessary, it will be likely to grow out of the action of the Democratic party in presenting a Funding bill so entirely impracticable, and so dangerous to the business interests of the country, that it could not be permitted to become law.

Q—You do not think there is anything to be gained by passing an early Apportionment bill, or in the way of organizing Congress?

Mr. Reed—I think not. It has not been customary to make the new apportionment before the December session of the year following the census, and the only incentive to making the apportionment early this year, was the fact that so many of the State Legislatures were actually in session, and the House did pass an Apportionment bill which was apparently generally satisfactory, but the Senate opposed it and failed. Now the legislatures have adjourned, and there would be no special advantage in making an apportionment at an extra session. If we have one at all, Funding will be the cause.

THE BANKS AND THE TREASURY.

DECISION THAT THE LEGAL TENDERS DEPOSITED CANNOT BE WITHDRAWN.

The Administration has made its first important decision in financial matters, and the conclusion is one which the public undoubtedly will heartily approve. The Secretary of the Treasury has decided the $18,000,000 of lawful money which the National banks had deposited with the Treasury for the purpose of retiring their circulating notes and to withdraw their security bonds cannot be returned to the banks, as all of them have requested, but that the process of retiring that amount of currency legally begun must, under the law, be continued.

The Cabinet meeting convened shortly after 12 o'clock Friday. All the members were present. Secretary Windom took with him from the Treasury Department a large portfolio filled with statements, copies of letters, etc., pertaining to the request of the National banks relative to the withdrawal of their recent legal-tender deposits for the retirement of circulation. The consideration of this subject was very exhaustive, and it was the only business of importance transacted at the meeting. The request made by the National banks was finally decided, and Secretary Windom was authorized to prepare the decision, which was not completed until late in the afternoon. The decision, although signed by acting Secretary French, was actually rendered by Secretary Windom. Owing to the pressure of business upon the Secretary, Assistant-Secretary French signed to-day's business, and it is the rule of the Department that the entire business of any given day shall all be signed by one person. The text of the decision is as follows:

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, March 11, 1881.

President Merchants' National Bank, Cleveland, Ohio.

SIR: I am in receipt of your letter of the 5th inst., stating that your bank had, during the previous week, deposited with the Assistant Treasurer at New York, $180,000 in legal-tenders, with a view of retiring that amount of its circulating notes, that the bonds to secure the same, amounting to $200,000, had been forwarded from the Treasury in this city to New York, and that the bank now desires to return them to the Treasurer of the United States and receive back the above amount of legal-tender notes. As the action taken in this case would establish a rule by which the Department would necessarily be governed in regard to similar requests from other banks, some delay in answering your letter has occurred.

It seems that since the 19th ultimo about $19,000,000 of legal-tenders have been deposited by banks for a purpose like that mentioned by you. Of this amount about one million was returned by the Treasurer, request therefor having been received before any redemptions of notes had been made or the security bonds delivered. In such cases, the transaction being incomplete, the Department has clearly a right to return the notes, as has been done. Of the remaining amount—abo it $18,000,000—the security bonds therefor have either been surrendered, or redemptions against the amounts deposited have already been made, and the transactions have been so far completed that it has been decided that the precedents of the Department in similar cases should be adhered to, and no return of the legal-tenders be made.

In this connection it should be stated that no apprehension of unfavorable results need be entertained in this matter. Since the 25th ultimo the Department has paid out for bonds purchased about $6,500,000, and is to day paying out on like account an additional amount of $5,600,000. In addition to these payments there has been advanced from the Treasury since the 1st instant to meet the payments of arrearages of pensions, the amount of $7,533,844 33, and on the 1st proximo there will fall due of interest more than $6,000,000, and there are on hand of incomplete National Bank notes, which can be issued at once to the banks, the amount of $4,000,000 which in the aggregate it will be observed, will take an amount from the Treasury largely in excess of the amount of legal-tender notes which has been deposited by the banks since the 19th ultimo, and which it is now desired should be returned.

Letters have also been received asking if the identical United States bonds held as security for circulating notes which were recently withdrawn by the National banks can be redeposited without transfer. This request will be granted if the bond bears no assignment except that of the Treasurer of the United States to the bank returning it. Very respectfully,

H. F. FRENCH,
Acting Secretary.

THE IRISH TROUBLES.

[For the Whig and Courier.]

The resolution lately passed by the New York House of Representatives, of sympathy with the Irish leaders in their present struggles, was the sheerest piece of demagogism which has lately been perpetrated even in America. Ireland has indeed claims upon the sympathy of all benevolent people, but at this particular juncture, the course of her leaders has been so injudicious and outrageous that not even Democratic demagogues could have had the face to pass such a resolution if they had had any proper understanding of the matters upon which they were giving judgment. There has never been a time in the whole history of Ireland, when she has stood so good a chance of getting whatever relief could come from liberal action on the part of the English government; and no course could have been better adapted to thwart such action than just the perverse and wilful course which the Irish leaders in the English Parliament have chosen to pursue.

That a country like Ireland, rich in its natural resources with so kindly a climate and so fruitful a soil, neighbor to the wealthiest and happiest nations of the globe, should present such a spectacle of chronic poverty, ignorance, famine, and disorder, is indeed a lamentable fact. What are the causes? Doubtless very much is due to the miserable land-tenure system. The land is owned by nobles and rich men who reside out of the country, and whose estates are managed by agents whose interest (like that of the old slave-overseer) is to extract as much as possible from the miserable tenantry, and who are aided in doing so by oppressed laws or hereditary customs which have much the force of law. But that this is not the only or perhaps the most efficient cause of Ireland's poverty and discontent might be argued from the fact that Scotland, during the whole last century, was oppressed beyond any oppression of Ireland—was governed by a political system, more narrow and corrupt, her nobility like that of Ireland, non-resident, her soil scantier and her climate ruder; and yet she has escaped the demoralized conditions which are perpetual with Ireland—has overcome her disadvantages by that steady course of improvement which a people well instructed never fail to pursue, even against the greatest odds. Conclusive further proof to the same end which is furnished by Ireland herself, in the fact that her Northern provinces, though aboring under the same want of noble residents, owned more largely by great English lords and corporations, and having the same vicious land tenure system, yet knows little or nothing of the disorders, and cruelties, and degradations which are perennial in the Southern provinces. These things may suggest to any one that bad land system, bad laws and bad government are not the only or perhaps chief causes of the misery of this most miserable land. What these other causes are, it is not my purpose to indicate. If any one is not sufficiently acquainted with the differences between Northern and Southern Ireland to see at once what some of these causes are, he is ignorant of the simplest matters connected with "the Irish troubles." Probably that is the condition of the New York legislators.

As far as bad land system and bad laws are concerned, it is certain that if any relief could come to Ireland, it would be from the grand old statesman who is now at the head of the English government. It is beyond measure provoking, that when he had set himself to this work with all the ardor and thoroughness that are characteristic of him, he should have been obstructed, hampered, baited by the Irish leaders themselves.

We have sometimes wished that England would cut clear of Ireland and let her have to her heart's content the independence about which she prates. England does not need her. The Romans who understood military matters, were supreme in England for four centuries and did not care for possession of Ireland. The extent of sea between the two islands is such, and England's maritime defences are so great, that no foreign power would find it advantage in making Ireland a point of attack upon England. Ireland is simply a bill of expense to England and takes much more out of the partnership than she put into it. If the majority of the Irish are anxious for a separate government, determined not to be at peace or rest till they have it, it is extremely doubtful whether it is worth while for England, sword in hand, to force her into union. If Ireland were independent, I believe it would soon be seen in her utter inability (as she now is) to govern herself and to secure the prosperity and quiet which belong to the surrounding nations; that her trouble has some deeper source than the misgovernment of England.

PERSONAL. We are pleased to notice in the Washington despatches that Secretary Blaine has appointed his eldest son, Walker Blaine, Esq., as his Private Secretary. A more admirable choice could not have been made, and the accomplished son will render the Secretary of State something more than merely clerical assistance. A graduate of Yale and Columbia Law School, with the advantages of travel and intelligent observation abroad, Mr. Blaine is well equipped for the duties of his new position, and his courteous and pleasing manners will be appreciated by all with whom he is brought in contact. We are also glad to know that Thomas H. Sherman, Esq., of Bucksport, who for so many years has with marked ability acted as Senator Blaine's personal private Secretary, is to have a confidential position in the State Department.

Levi Patten, a few years ago, was masquerading as a non-partisan temperance man, and laboring to organize Republican bolts in favor of more stringent prohibition. Now that political saint rallies the Fusionists in a canvass which their organ declares is an open crusade for Free Rum! For a stubby-legged chap, Patten has a marvellous political straddle.

David Davis displays his usual "independence" by voting with the Democrats to grab the organization of the Senate. He holds that it would be partisanship to vote with the Republicans in favor of decency and fair play. The Judge didn't stop to get off the fence this time—he tumbled off.—Tribune.

The Commercial has not yet ventured any opinion of Ladd's protection and subsidy speech. He smashed against every doctrine of commercial policy that has been advocated by the Commercial for years, but it has not a word to say.

The Tribune says that Judge J. C. B. Davis will not be the Assistant Secretary of State, but that Col. John Hay will retain the position until his successor is elected.

The First Explodes Under His Carriage.

THE CZAR ALIGHTS UNINJURED.

Another Bomb Bursts at His Feet.

Both Legs Shattered and Other Terrible Injuries Received.

AN OFFICER AND TWO COSSACKS KILLED.

Many Others Injured.

TWO PERSONS CONCERNED IN THE CRIME.

WASHINGTON, March 13. The State Department has information from St. Petersburg that a bomb was thrown under the Czar's carriage this morning and the explosion resulted in his death.

Despatches from Minister Foster at St. Petersburg to the State Department, announces the killing of the Czar by the explosion of a bomb under his carriage. As the Emperor was returning from a parade in Michael Manege, about two o'clock Sunday afternoon, a bomb was thrown which exploded under the Czar's carriage, which was considerably damaged. The Czar alighted unhurt, but a second bomb exploded at his feet shattering both legs below the knee and inflicting other terrible injuries. The Czar was immediately conveyed in an unconscious state to the Winter Palace, where he died at 4:30 this afternoon. Two persons were concerned in the crime, one of whom was seized immediately. The explosions also killed an officer and two Cossacks. Many policemen and other persons were injured.

God's will has been done. At 3:35 o'clock this (Sunday) afternoon the Almighty called the Emperor to himself. A few minutes before his death the Emperor received the sacrament.

LONDON, March 11. A St. Petersberg correspondent says: The Imperial carriage was attacked on the Ekaterinofsky Canal opposite the Imperial stables, while the Emperor was returning with the Grand Duke Michael from Michael palace in an enclosed carriage escorted by eight Cossacks. The first bomb fell near the carriage destroying the back part of it. The Czar and his brother alighted unhurt.

The assassin on being seized by a Colonel of the police drew a revolver, but was prevented from firing it. A second bomb was then thrown by another person and fell close to the Czar's feet, its explosion shattering both his legs. The Czar fell, crying for help. Col. Dorjibky, though himself much injured, raised the Emperor, who was conveyed to the Winter Palace in Colonel Dorjibky's sleigh. Large crowds assembled before the palace, but were kept back by a troop of Cossacks. The Imperial family were all assembled at the death bed. A Council of State was immediately convened. All places of public resort are closed.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 11. Glasses of gas lamps in the Michael garden beside the canal were broken in pieces by the concussion of the explosion. A cordon of guards was drawn around the scene of the murder. The streets were densely thronged with excited crowds. The utmost sympathy for the Imperial family is every where expressed. The bells of the principal churches are tolling.

ROME, March 11. In consequence of the death of the Czar, Premier Cairoli has postponed his reception until Monday.

VIENNA, March 11. Emperor Francis Joseph received the first news of the Czar's murder which reached Vienna. He immediately sent a message to Czarewitch and the Imperial family.

The Standard's St. Petersburg correspondent telegraphs that the Czar's right leg was nearly torn from the body and the left leg badly shattered. A Cossack and passer by were killed on the spot. The Grand Duke Michael was wounded. An officer of the escort and a Cossack have since died. The Czar lingered an hour and a half. All efforts to rally him failed. The only word he uttered after being struck was the name of the Czarwitch. The latter on leaving the palace after the death of Czar was hailed as Emperor by the crowd. He was surrounded, contrary to his custom, by a strong mounted escort. The people are intensely excited and indignant. The soldiery, who greatly loved the Czar, are furious. All of the officials hastened to the palace to inquire as to the condition of the Czar.

Telegrams announcing the death were sent to all foreign courts and to every part of the Empire. It is stated that the bombs were made of thick glass filled with nitro-glycerine. The assassins stood on opposite sides of the road. The carriage was moving fast and the first shell struck the ground behind it and the back of the carriage was blown out. The coachman implored the Czar to enter the carriage again but he moved a few paces from the carriage to see to the wounded of his escort. The assassin who threw the first bomb tried to point a revolver at the Czar.

LONDON, March 13. The Times has a St. Petersburg despatch which says the doctors' bulletins published at three o'clock in the afternoon, stated that the legs were broken below the knee, the lower part of the body severely injured, and the left eye blown from its socket. The Grand Duke Michael was not hurt. The assassins were disguised as peasants. One report states that one of them was so roughly handled that he has since died. All of the army officers have been ordered to remain in their barracks. The Council of the Empire under the Presidency of the Czarewitch, was still sitting at midnight. A manifesto will be published on Monday.

Condolence of the United States Cabled to St. Petersburg by Secretary Blaine.

WASHINGTON, March 11. Minister White telegraphed from Berlin that the Emperor of Russia was assassinated this afternoon. Upon the receipt of a second depatch from Minister Foster Secretary Blaine cabled the following:

Mr. Foster, American Minister to St. Petersburg:

Express to the Minister of Foreign Affairs the sentiments of sorrow with which the President and people of the United States have heard of the terrible crime of which the Emperor has been the victim, and their profound sympathy with the Imperial family and the Russian people in their great affliction.

ALL THE RAGE TO-NIGHT.

The Providence Star thus speaks:

The action is rapid, the dialogue bubbling with humor of the richest, purest kind, and the acting is of the highest order. Such a play, presented by such a company, cannot fail to catch on to public popularity. Frank Hardenbergh was warmly welcomed, and played with a vim, vivacity and grace that told. He handled the really witty dialogue, that fell to his part, with an ease and dry naturalness that kept his audience on a broad grin all the time. Davidge, as the irate Doctor, was almost equally happy. Those who dislike to laugh should avoid this show, but those who enjoy the ludicrous, the humorous, and the sprightly, excellently interpreted, should not miss seeing "All the Rage."

NARROW ESCAPE. As the late Pullman from Boston reached the Know-nothing, just beyond the transfer station at Portland, Thursday night, a drunken man stumbled as he was getting off the sleeping car. The conductor made an attempt to seize him but he fell over backwards from the car. The train backed down to him, but found he had had a wonderful escape as he had fallen into a pool of water deep enough to break his fall. The man was carried to that city and taken to the police station. He was a Frenchman and belonged in Waterville.

NICHOLS' GIFT CONCERT AND BALL. Notice is given in another column that Lemuel Nichols, the well-know livery stable keeper, will have a grand gift concert and ball, in Music Hall, Tuesday evening, March twenty-ninth, and that $11,000 in gifts will be presented to ticket holders on the following day. The ball will be under the management of well known gentlemen, and as the best of order will be maintained during the evening, a pleasant time is anticipated. The names of the floor managers and programme will be announced hereafter. Persons from out of town who desire any information, or wish to purchase tickets, should address all communications to L. Nichols, Bangor.

OUR INSURANCE COMMISSIONER. The following from the Weekly Underwriter, published in New York shows the esteem in which our Maine Insurance Commissioner is held by insurance men of the country: "There does not seem to be any uncertainty in the mind of the Insurance Commissioner of Maine, as to his duty regarding insurance legislation, and in this respect he furnishes a refreshing contrast to the Insurance Superintendent of New York. The vigorous protest made by Mr. Peaks against the valued policy law in Maine, is one of the most forcible we have seen coming from a public official. If there is any prospect that such a bill can be reported from your committee, I most certainly wish to be heard. Contrast this with Mr. Fairman's declaration that he should not attempt to influence insurance legislation, and one can judge which of the two men is most likely to be useful to the public service."

THE SHIPPING ASSOCIATION. At a meeting of the members of the Maine Legislature, representing the cities and towns interested in navigation, holden on the 25th ult., it was voted to obtain a charter at the present session of the Legislature, for the organization of a Maine Ship Owners' and Ship Masters' Association. Pursuant to said vote, a charter has been applied for, the corporators of which comprise many of the leading ship owners and ship masters of the State. Under this charter, an organization will be completed at Augusta to-morrow, at the State House. The object of the association will be the protection of the rights of ship owners and ship masters, and to promote the interests of navigation. One of the immediate points in view will be the testing of the constitutionality of the Hell Gate Pilot Laws, which is an unjust charge upon our coasting trade. Arrangements have been made with Payson Tucker, Superintendent, of the Maine Central, to sell half fare tickets on the line of that road. This reduction in rate ought to secure a full attendance.

THE LADIES' SELECT CLASS. The ladies' select class gave one of the very pleasantest dances of the season at Music Hall, Saturday evening. This class was formed some time since and has been taking a course of lessons in dancing from Mr. Andrews, during which the gentlemen have been excluded. On Saturday, however, they took pity on their gentlemen friends, and as it was the last lesson in the first half of the term, decided to give sort of a leap year party, inasmuch as the ladies extended the invitations and took entire charge of the dancing. A large company was in attendance and it was the unanimous decision that the party was one of the very best of the season, the gentlemen saying that if the class always had such pleasant times, they hoped to receive frequent invitations while the course lasted. The ladies appeared with powdered hair and looked very finely, while they managed the dance in an easy and graceful manner. It is now their intention to close the course with a calico party.

A BRUTAL AFFAIR. Saturday afternoon a man from Prince Edward Island, by the name of James Murray, appeared at the station house with his head badly cut in several places and covered with blood. He said that he had been interviewed by one William Cassidy, the proprietor of the York Street House. According to Murray's story he arrived in the city last fall and stopped at the York Street House until he hired to go into the woods with J. W. Palmer & Son, when he went away owing Cassidy one dollar and a half and left his trunk as security. Saturday he returned to the city and called for his trunk and settled his old bill. While he was in the house one of the "regular boarders" began to amuse himself by knocking Murray's hat off, and when he intimated that this playfulness had gone about far enough, Cassidy took a hand in the matter, and to maintain the good order of his house, struck this man down and inflicted several frightful wounds on his head and face. Whether Murray's story is a true version of the affair or not, we are unable to say; but there is no excuse for Cassidy's attacking a man in this inhuman manner, even if he was creating a disturbance. This is the second man he has used in a similar manner and it is about time for him to learn that he has no right to take the law in his own hands. The case will come to trial to-day.

THE CONDITION OF THE ICE.

Another Movement Yesterday — The Veazie Mills now Thought to be out of Danger.

The condition of the ice still causes considerable anxiety and its every movement is watched with great interest. On Saturday the ice started a little at Veazie and damaged the mills slightly by tearing away a few timbers. At about eleven o'clock yesterday morning the ice at Great Works came down and passed over the Veazie dam, forming a jam about a quarter of a mile below. When the ice started it carried away about three hundred logs owned by W. T. Pearson & Co. and the tops of some of the piers. There is quite a channel in the river below Eddington Bend, and it was thought last evening that the jam above was liable to be crowded down into this channel at any moment. Since the last movement of the jam it is thought that the Veazie mills are out of danger. The force of the ice when it started yesterday morning threw some of the cakes up on the E. & N. A. Railway track, but did no damage. Superintendent Cram had a crew of men on the spot and the ice was quickly removed from the track, leaving everything clear again. At the Water Works the ice still remains solid up as far as one can see. Last night five feet of water was running over the dam. Kenduskeag stream is now almost free from ice. At about five o'clock Saturday afternoon the ice started again and crowded its way almost down to the E. & N. A. draw-bridge. Yesterday the jam continued to move down slowly and at dark the ice had about passed under the bridge. Below there is a large channel opposite the steamboat wharf, and it is continually increasing in size. Many express the opinion that the ice will take its departure early this week, and the steamboat folks think that they will be able to sail from Bangor next Thursday.

The so-called "Taxpayers" held a caucus in City Hall Saturday afternoon, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Mayor. It was chiefly comprised of the same men that are always seen in the Democratic caucuses and the same old wire-pullers conducted the business from beginning to end. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Thomas White, who nominated Mr. Levi B. Patten for Chairman, after which Mr. Chas. E. Hill was chosen Secretary. The speeches of the occasion were made by Levi B. Patten and John F. Robinson.

A committee was chosen to receive, sort and count the votes, and as F. M. Laughton had 262 out of a total of 265 votes, he was declared the nominee. The caucus then adjourned, after which a few of the voters from several of the wards met in different parts of the hall and made the following nominations:

In the evening the Democrats held a general caucus at which about the same crowd was present, the principal difference being in point of numbers and ratified the nominations made in the after noon, except in Ward six, where the name of Ruel Smith was substituted for Levi Murch.

A FINAL WORD FOR THE B. & P. RAILROAD.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

The voters of Bangor will have an opportunity to-day (Monday) to decide whether they will permit the City of Bangor to make an agreement with the B. & P. Railroad Company to allow it to set apart a portion of its net earnings to pay the interest on the cost of the extension of its road to Moosehead Lake.

In arriving at a decision in this matter, the voter will naturally inquire whether such extension is for the interest of the city. This question has been discussed for years, and public opinion, if not entirely unanimous, is nearly so, that if the road was extended to the Lake, the net income of the whole road would thereby be increased much more than enough to pay the interest on the cost of extension. It was never supposed that the road would pay the cost of construction until completed to the Lake. The last two extensions, that from Guilford to Abbot, and from Abbot to Blanchard, were made more with a view to approach the Lake than to increase the business of the road; as all the business on the line of these extensions, except what the road has developed, would have come to the road had it not been extended. There is already a business between the terminus of the road and Lake which, if the road were completed, would give it ten thousand dollars a year. But this amount is small compared with the amount of income that may reasonably be anticipated when the road shall be completed. The vast forests bordering on a lake with several hundred miles of shores, coves and creeks, containing all kinds of timber suitable to be manufactured into bobbins, spools, shingles, boards, ship timber and spars, when brought in close proximity to the railroad by water transportation on the lake, must necessarily furnish the road with a large amount of freight. Travel over the road, both for business and pleasure, will also largely increase. While the business of the road may be expected to be largely increased by the extension, the additional cost of running the road will be comparatively small. It should also be kept in mind that every additional ton of freight, and every additional passenger secured to the road by the extension, will pay for transportation over the whole road. It has been suggested that the proposed agreement may infringe the amendment of the constitution. There is no reason why any voter should withhold his vote on this account. Every voter who thinks it for the interest of the city to have the road extended should vote "Yes," for any doubts as to constitutional questions must be removed before money can be obtained on the strength of any agreement based on the vote. Therefore every man should vote as he thinks it for the interest of this city.

CITIZEN.

AMUSEMENTS.

"All the Rage" To-Night.

Part of the "All the Rage" Combination arrived in this city yesterday morning and the balance will come by Pullman train this morning. To-night the amusing comedy will receive its second representation in this city. A few changes have been made in the company, but these changes make the company even stronger than before, according to our exchanges. There has been a good advance sale of seats and a large audience will undoubtedly be present to-night. Seats should be secured during the day.

NOTES.

Denman Thompson, in his famous impersonation of "Joshua Whitcomb" will appear in Norombega on Wednesday evening, 23d inst. Announcement of the opening sale of seats will be made to-morrow.

The "Banker's Daughter" will follow Denman Thompson.

"The Gov'nor" will be presented in this city in May by the original Boston Museum cast.

PROF. CHURCHILL'S READINGS.

The Boston Journal says: "The chief charm of Prof. Churchill's reading lies in his dramatic power, and it is to be regretted that he did not select the theatrical profession, for on the stage as a character actor few would have outshone him."

Of a recent reading in Worcester the Spy says: "For two hours Mr. Churchill held his listeners in the closest attention, and gladly would they have remained longer."

Tickets are in good demand from our neighboring towns and Prof. Churchill will have an enthusiastic reception from his Bangor audience Tuesday evening.

"I'M ALL PLAYED OUT,"

is a common complaint. If you feel so, get a package of Kidney-Wort and take it and you will at once feel its tonic power. It renews the healthy action of the kidneys, bowels and liver, and thus restores the natural life and strength to the weary body. It can now be had in either dry or liquid form, and in either way is always prompt and sufficient in action.—New Bedford Standard. d&w1w mar12

THE POPULAR DEMAND.

So great has been the popular demand for the celebrated remedy Kidney-Wort, that it is having an immense sale from Maine to California. Some have found it inconvenient to prepare it from the dry compound. For such the proprietors now prepare it in liquid form. This can be procured at the druggists. It has precisely the same effect as the dry, but is very concentrated so that the dose is much smaller.—Lowell Mail. d&w1w mar12

FACTS ARE STUBBORN THINGS; but the fact that DR. BULLOCK'S KIDNEY REMEDY, "NEPHRETICUM," always accomplishes what is claimed for it, is so well established that every sufferer with Kidney disease, or Urinary troubles, can feel that in its use he has a fact completely substantiated. Try it if needing such a medicine, and add another to the large number who have been benefitted by its use. 1wmar8

A CAPITAL SUBSTITUTE.

Once a man searched through what is now the State of Florida to find a fountain he had heard was there, which was able to make an old person young again. He failed. We can't be boys or girls again. Age and Infirmity are sure to come, but God did not ordain sickness. That is our fault. There is no Fountain of Youth, but there is a Fountain of Health, and its other name is Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy." It comes from Nature—from the fields and flowers, and like them is "very good." Try it for all Complaints of Women, Blood Troubles, and pains and aches everywhere. If you can't get it at the store, send One Dollar for a bottle to the Doctor at Rondout, N. Y. d&w2wmar4

BURNETT'S COCOAINE FOR LOSS OF HAIR.

CHICAGO, Oct. 11, 1880.

Three years ago my hair was coming out very fast, and I was nearly bald. I was also troubled with dandruff. I began using BURNETT'S COCOAINE, and my hair immediately stopped coming out, and has constantly been getting thicker. My head is now entirely free from dandruff. My wife has used the COCOAINE with equally as gratifying results.

THAT'S A FACT.

A man can't work unless he feels well. The hard times have made plenty of people sick simply by worrying them almost out of their wits about money and business. Trouble of mind has brought on trouble of body. There is indigestion, heaviness in the head, and all that. Are you afflicted in this way? Go and invest One Dollar for a bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's "Favorite Remedy," and it will make a new man of you. It takes the bile out of the blood, and is worth a trip to Rondout, N. Y.,—the Doctor's home—on foot, if you can not get it more easily. First, however, see if your druggist hasn't got it. d&w2wmar4
